PERIMETER FENCING INSTALLED AS CAMP SECURITY MEASURE

Heightened security in light of the September 11 terror attacks on the United States include over seven miles of fencing currently being installed around the cantonment or active duty area of Camp Grayling. The Camp's beach and boat launch (above), open for years to the public, is now off-limits. Public access at McIntyre Landing remains open.

CAMP GRAYLING - Events of September 11, and those following, have made a significant impact on all U.S. military installations worldwide, with the most impact on security.

The Department of Defense (DOD) mandates all installation commanders adhere to current threat condition protection measures for facilities, soldiers, civilian employees and comply with the appropriate level of Force Protection.

In addition to the events of "9-11," there have been numerous threats made against Michigan schools, banks and Camp Grayling facilities -- all of which must be taken seriously until proven otherwise.

A very significant result is the addition of perimeter fence on the Camp Grayling cantonment area and limiting of access to the installation's facilities for official use only. Before September 11, Camp Grayling was one of the only unfenced military installations in the United States and across the globe.

The fencing being installed, at the cost of almost $400,000, is being paid for by federal funding and includes about 7.5 miles of fencing and gates.

Depending on the perceived threat assessment, the level of access to the main camp area will vary and can be limited to those who require access for official business only.

Mooring of boats off Camp Grayling shoreline on Lake Margrethe has been eliminated and use of Camp Grayling's boat launch site to the public has been discontinued.

The public is encouraged to continue to use the Camp Grayling recreational leased boat launch operated by the Department of Natural Resources (DNR) on the northwest side of the lake, also known as McIntyre Landing boat launch.

Grayling Police foil possible murder plot

by Cheryl Ruley
Staff Writer

Quick thinking by a tenant of the Arbor Court Apartments in Grayling helped police capture a downstate man before he could commit any further crimes.

Jamie Emery Pierce, 26, was arrested December 6, less than 24 hours after a neighbor in the building where he had been staying with a co-worker and his wife, found a note in a common hallway revealing a possible plot to kidnap, rape and murder a local woman.

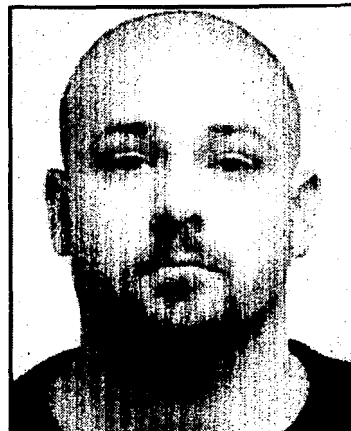

The letter was turned over to Grayling Patrolman Al Somero who, along with Detective Dennis Long, began the investigation immediately to prevent a tragedy. Police believe the letter, signed with just the initial "J," was penned by Pierce.

Once it was determined Pierce was a suspect, a background check was performed and police discovered the man has been wanted since March 31 on two counts of 2nd degree criminal sexual conduct (CSC) by the Garden City Police Department in Wayne County.

Police also discovered Pierce was released from prison in May 2000 after serving time for three previous convictions of CSC and a conviction of breaking and entering with intent to commit CSC from 1995 and 1996.

According to Det. Long, Pierce had been working at a fast food restaurant in Grayling with the husband of the woman targeted in the letter, who told police his wife had rebuffed the advances of the suspect on more than one occasion.

The couple had taken Pierce and a female acquaintance into their home after the suspect claimed they had no place to live. Pierce came to Grayling in April and reportedly told co-workers he was avoiding downstate police because he hadn't paid child support. Outstanding charges of non-payment of child support have not been substantiated.

Jamie Emery Pierce was arrested by Grayling Police last week after a note threatening rape and murder was discovered at a local apartment complex.

Police found Pierce in Crawford County following an extensive search of local motels, apartments and rental units here and in Roscommon County.

Thus far locally, Pierce has been charged with one count of attempted CSC. Det. Long said the case is currently under review by the Prosecutor's Office and more charges may be forthcoming. In the meantime, Pierce has been sent back to Garden City to face the two CSC charges filed there. He is also a suspect in numerous other unsolved cases of forcible criminal sexual conduct in that area.

Det. Long, who described Pierce as a "serial rapist," said, "We know what this guy is capable of and we think there may be others in the Grayling area who have had contact with this predator. We hope they will recognize his face and come forward to talk to us."

Det. Long can be reached at (989) 348-4601.

Thief steals local family's cherished holiday spirit

by Cheryl Ruley
Staff Writer

Many of us will spend this holiday season without the company of a loved one we have lost this year. Joan Papendick, of Grayling, is one of them.

Married for 50 years to her late husband, Clifton or "Kip" as he was known by many, Mrs. Papendick is struggling with the notion of going on with cherished family traditions without him. Holiday decorating is one of them.

Since the early 1960s, the Papendick home on Smith Street has been decorated for the holidays, much to the delight of neighbors and passersby. The highlight of the family's Christmas display has always been a six-foot tall Santa resting comfortably before the glow of a simulated wood stove on the front lawn.

With some difficulty, but much determination, Mrs. Papendick said she just had to decorate the front yard again this year, with love and in honor of Kip, who won an award back in 1963 for the outdoor display many have grown to love. Some have even sat little ones on Santa's lap for a photo.

Mrs. Papendick and her two daughters have been without their husband and father since September 19, and now are without the one thing that was helping make this holiday seem a little less lonely. The Santa they so lovingly placed in his chair by the fire has been stolen.

Mrs. Papendick said she reported Santa missing to the Grayling Police late Sunday evening, December 9. She said she turned off the display lights around 10 p.m. and Santa was still there. Before retiring for the evening, she glanced out her living room window around 11 p.m. and in the glow from a nearby streetlight, noticed Santa's chair was empty.

Santa has been stolen before, but this occurrence has been heartbreaking for Mrs. Papendick and her family. She is hoping the person or people who took the star of Kip's display would return him to his rightful place before long.

Anyone having knowledge of the whereabouts of this Santa is asked to contact the Grayling Police Department at 348-4601.

Santa's chair has been empty since Sunday night. He was part of a display that has graced the Papendick lawn on Smith Street for nearly 40 years. He has turned up missing before, but this year his disappearance has caused more heartbreak than ever for a grieving family.

Thanksgiving Day armed robbery suspect arrested

by Cheryl Ruley
Staff Writer

A 49-year old man known by law enforcement to have resided in Grayling, Gaylord and Houghton Lake, was arrested early Saturday evening for allegedly holding up the E-Z Mart Phillips 66 station on Thanksgiving Day.

Grayling Detective Dennis Long said following his arrest, Gary William Shepherd gave a "full admission" of robbing a female gas station attendant of $400 and putting her in a back room while he made his getaway around 1:15 p.m. that day. Shepherd told police he had been drinking alcohol before the incident.

The attendant told police, Shepherd indicated he had a handgun and threatened to shoot her, but no weapon has been recovered.

Long said his department had been tight-lipped about the crime to avoid compromising the investigation until a list of suspects was narrowed down and an arrest was made.

The Road Commission's most immediate project, the 2002 North Down River Road resurfacing job, is proceeding. The Road Commission must now go to the task force meeting, along with road commissions, transportation authorities, and cities from eight other northern Michigan counties, to negotiate a plan for spending the TEA-21 money available to the nine counties in Crawford's task force.

Silencer does no good for downstate hunter

A 23-inch silencer didn't help a downstate hunter, it only hurt his chances of escaping heavy state and federal charges. The hunter, identified as 48-year old Luigi Laise of Sterling Heights, was arrested for hunting with a silencer on opening day of firearm deer season.

According to court records, Laise waived his right to preliminary examination on December 4 in 83rd District Court on the state charges of possession of a silencer and felon in possession of a firearm. Laise could be sentenced to five years in prison if convicted of both charges. He is also facing a habitual offender charge because he was convicted in 1988 and 1995 on felony drug charges.

Laise was seen shooting a deer over a large bait pile on opening day of deer season while under surveillance by local Department of Natural Resources conservation officers and was arrested. The bait pile was described as a truckload of sugar beets and several bales of hay -- an amount banned to prevent the spread of bovine tuberculosis in the northern Michigan whitetail herds.

The silencer Laise was found to have attached to his rifle added to his troubles, the federal charge of manufacturing or possessing a silencer, for which Laise may be ordered to spend 10 years behind bars and pay a hefty $250,000 fine.

Laise was also issued citations for shooting a deer outside of hunting hours, possession of a deer without a license or kill tag and violation of the current bait ban.

With the exception of the silencer offense, five other downstate men are reported to have been cited recently on like charges. The DNR reportedly suspects Laise belongs to one of many groups believed to have illegally harvested deer from large, privately-owned tracts of land in northern Crawford County, and then the meat is taken downstate for sale.

Details of the design and construction of the silencer will be forwarded to the Federal Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms (ATF).

Teens fined, given 90-day sentence for digging up gravesite

by Cheryl Ruley
Staff Writer

Following guilty pleas on the lesser charge of malicious destruction of property over $200, two teens were sentenced last week for their part in attempting to unearth a gravesite in Beaver Creek's historic Pere Cheney Cemetery in May.

Joshua James Strother, of Higgins Lake, and Paul Michael Saylor, of Roscommon, both now 18 years old, were originally charged with disinterment/mutilation of a grave and faced up to 10 years in prison and/or a fine of up to $5,000 for the crime.

On May 4, turkey hunters in the area of the cemetery, located in southern Crawford County, spotted the teens digging there and reported the sighting to 911 Central Dispatch. The pair, along with an unnamed 16-year old juvenile, had managed to dig three to four feet down into the grave before they were spotted, but no skeletal remains of the grave dated 1919 were disturbed.

Deputies were able to track down the suspects with the help of the hunters who gave a detailed description of their vehicle. The suspects also left footprints, shovels and other evidence at the gravesite.

Upon questioning last spring, the pair told Crawford County Sheriff's deputies they were trying to find rings and other jewelry, but their story later changed during negotiations with Crawford County Prosecutor John Huss when it was revealed the suspects had heard there was a witch in the grave and they were attempting to dig her out. Strother and Saylor appeared earlier this month in 46th Circuit Trial Court and were sentenced to 90 days in jail, ordered to pay $700 in fines and court costs, and perform 80 hours of community service.

Fire fighters seek help with educational program

Chief Duane Brooks of the Grayling City/Township Fire Department said last week his department is continuing a commitment to fire prevention. As part of this commitment, the department is organizing its annual Fire and Burn Safety Program for the children of Grayling.

Over 750 youngsters, ages five through 12, will receive educational fire prevention materials created and geared to each specific age level.

This comprehensive program includes fire safety guidebooks containing 24 activity pages designed by educators to stimulate the child's awareness and independent thinking about the everyday fire hazards he or she may encounter.

Various other fire safety booklets, folders, posters, and brochures are made available to encourage the prevention of destructive fires, painful burns, disfiguring injuries, and needless death.

Bob Koch of the National Fire Safety Council, Inc. (NFSC) will be helping local fire fighters in planning and delivering programs to the school children. He is the Area Fire Safety Coordinator of the NFSC, a federal tax-exempt, 501(c)(3) non-profit organization and all donations are tax-deductible.

The Grayling City/Township Fire

Department is in the process of mailing sponsor request letters explaining the entire program to area business, industrial and professional leaders, asking for their financial support to help cover the cost of the materials used by the department.

Chief Brooks stresses to prospective sponsors this is the only program of this type the Grayling City/Township Fire Department will be conducting this year. Should any other person solicit for support, especially by phone or in person, and does not have a letter from Chief Duane Brooks, please contact the fire department immediately.

Grant may help with library tree planting

by Cheryl Ruley
Staff Writer

Crawford County Environmental Monitor Pat Merrill has applied for a $200 matching grant to plant trees at the Devereaux Memorial Crawford County Library, currently under construction.

The matching funds would come from Merrill's environmental budget and, if the grant is approved, would make possible the planting of five flowering crab apple trees to add to the planned landscaping.

Merrill told the Crawford County Board of Commissioners each tree planted would represent a school in the Crawford AuSable School District.

Straight party voting appears doomed

THE DAYS OF election-day simplicity when voters can choose all candidates of one party or the other with a single twitch of the wrist appear doomed in Michigan.

Republicans in the capitol -- in straight party voting fashion, by the way -- seek to make Michigan the 35th state to ban the straight party ballot in general elections.

No longer will it be possible for party loyalists to pull a single lever, mark a single square, punch a single chad to vote for all the Democrats or all the Republicans on the ballot.

Voters still can choose all Democrats or all Republicans, but they'll have to pull a lever, mark a square, punch a chad for each candidate of their choice for each office. With Michigan's bedsheet ballots, that can be a lot of work, and it can take a lot of time.

In the aftermath of the 2000 vote-counting in Florida, a general cry went up across the nation for election reform to make voting easier and more secure. This plan does neither.

GOP BACKERS INSIST the change will produce better citizenship, because voters must study candidates all down the ballot, and what they stand for.

"The goal is to focus attention on each individual race, which included judicial races and the ballot proposals," said state Sen. Bill Bullard, the bill's sponsor. He's right that voters usually don't pay too much attention to candidates for lesser offices. They know candidates for president or governor, but not much about those running for state education boards, and frequently even less about candidates for local offices.

The single uniting factor on the ballot is party affiliation. It still can be a guide for voters, but without a straight ticket vote, it will take dedication and endurance to sift through the 15 state offices, plus local races, which will be on the 2002 ballot.

Voter falloff at the bottom of the ticket is high; 25 percent of those who voted in 2000 skipped the supreme court races. Falloff could be even higher if voters must select each candidate individually.

"It gives more power to the individual," claims Rusty Hills, state GOP chair.

Perhaps, but it also gives the individual more work to do. Voters deserve ways to make it easier to vote, not tougher.

THE REAL REASON for junking straight party voting?

State Rep. Buzz Thomas, new Democratic leader in the state house, put his finger on it directly: Partisan politics.

"(Republicans) want to eliminate straight party voting because more Democrats vote straight party than Republicans," he claims.

Rep. Thomas is correct on his figures. Election officials estimate 40 percent of the state vote is straight ticket. In the 2000 presidential election in Detroit, which votes about 90 percent Democratic, 78 percent of the votes were straight party.

Among union and party workers, "Make it emphatic, vote straight Democratic" long has been a tool for training voters. It's also a directive, and it seems to work.

Republicans vote the straight ballot, too. In the 2000 election in Republican leaning Kent County, 51 percent of the vote was straight party, and 61 percent of those were Republican votes.

Doing away with the straight ticket obviously favors Republicans.

Both the Michigan Association of County Clerks and the Michigan Townships Association oppose eliminating straight ticket voting. These are the folks who run the election process in Michigan, and they fear it will make voting more complicated with longer lines, more waiting, and added difficulty for older voters.

THE KEY FIGURE in straight ticket voting is the head of the ticket the top office on the ballot to be filled.

Every four years, that's the president; in non-presidential years in Michigan, that's the governor or possibly the candidate for

United States senate.

With straight ticket voting, many voters plunk their vote straight party for president or governor or senator, and the rest of the ticket rides on the coattails.

Take a look at the Michigan picture next year.

Republicans will probably lead with Lt. Gov. Dick Posthumus for governor, and State Rep. Andrew Raczowski for U.S. senate.

Democrats likely will have 24-year incumbent Carl Levin for senate, and either Atty. Gen. Jennifer Granholm, U.S. Rep. Dave Bonior or former Gov. Jim Blanchard for governor.

What, if any, would be the coattail effects with that lineup?

We may never know.

WASHINGTON NOTES

By Carl Levin, U.S. Senator (D) Michigan

A Real Economic Stimulus Package

On November 26, the National Bureau of Economic Research made official what most Americans have known for months after an unprecedented ten years of healthy growth, our economy has slipped into recession. While economic data indicate this recession began as early as March, it no doubt has been made more severe by the terrorist attacks of September 11.

In recent weeks we've seen a sharp increase in the number of Americans losing their jobs while others have seen their hours cut back as the economy has slowed. When Americans aren't working, they aren't spending and ultimately that means even more layoffs. Michigan alone has almost 279,000 workers who are without jobs.

I believe that the federal government has an obligation to respond to this recession with policies that help those most affected by the downturn and which can quickly restore our economic health. Given the tremendous spirit of unity we've seen since September 11, I have been hopeful that Washington could reach agreement on what's known as a "stimulus" package.

One important sign that we could reach bipartisan agreement on such legislation came several weeks ago when the leaders of our Senate and House Budget Committees - two Republicans and two Democrats - agreed on principles that should determine the content of any stimulus package. They agreed it should have an immediate impact on our economy and provide money to those most likely to spend it now. And they agreed the stimulus should be temporary to make sure it didn't lead to massive deficits in the future.

This bipartisan group provided Congress with a roadmap that could have led to broad agreement on a stimulus package. Instead the Republican leadership in Congress has taken the stimulus bill on a detour that could do lasting damage to the economy.

The GOP leadership plan would lock into place tax cuts that are not only permanent but also tilted toward the wealthiest taxpayers and large corporations. Unlike broad based tax relief for working families and incentives for business investment, these tax cuts will not jumpstart the economy.

What they will do is explode the budget deficit in future years and provide over 55% of individual tax cut benefits to the top 1% of taxpayers. If these cuts - some $143 billion worth - were signed into law, they'd produce big budget deficits and higher interest rates down the road. History has taught us that high interest rates are a sure prescription for economic stagnation and higher unemployment.

Because the Republican leadership plan devotes so much to tax cuts for the highest income Americans, it contains far too little assistance for Americans who have lost their jobs in this recession. There's also less money to beef up security at our borders, prepare our local police and firefighters for new terrorist threats and stockpile the medications we need to combat recession by putting money into the economy while making our country more capable of combating terrorism.

Fortunately, the Senate Finance

Committee has reported out a stimulus bill that avoids the pitfalls of the Republican leadership plan. There are several advantages to the finance committee plan. First, it's focused on getting the economy moving today, as most all of its economic impact would be felt in 2002, when we need it. Again in contrast, the GOP plan tax cuts mainly occur after 2002.

Second, the finance committee plan, while providing incentives for businesses to invest immediately, also gives the greatest benefit to working families and those who lost their jobs as a result of the recession. Besides costing far less than the proposed tax cuts, providing federal assistance to these families is a real stimulus because it is money that cash-strapped families will put directly into the economy, which in turn can lead to new hiring.

Finally, because it will cost some $100 billion less than the GOP plan, the finance committee plan will help control future budget deficits, the key to both short-term and long-term economic health.

As I write these words, negotiations over a stimulus package are taking place. While the GOP leadership appears unwilling to give up its tax cuts for the wealthiest Americans, many others in the Senate, myself included, are reluctant to pass legislation that will do little to help the economy today and leave it weaker tomorrow. I'm hopeful, however, that we can still achieve a bipartisan stimulus bill that can get the economy moving, and keep it moving, in the future.

Carl Levin is the senior U.S. Senator from Michigan.

Mailing tips to get letters to the North Pole

Santa Claus has a lot in common with the United States Postal Service. Neither rain nor snow nor gloom of night keeps Santa from his appointed rounds at the homes of millions of children the world over.

Of course, Santa been doing it a bit longer than we have. But since 1775, he's relied almost exclusively on the Postal Service to bring him letters from girls and boys all across America.

This holiday season will be no different. The Postal Service is gearing up for a huge mail delivery to the North Pole to help Santa and his elves get ready for the big day.

Getting Mail to Santa -

Quickly and Safely

Santa's asked us to share these easy tips with children and families to help their letters get to him as quickly and safely as possible:

- Children should ask their parents for help addressing and putting stamps on their letters. This can avoid misspellings, which can slow down letters, or using too much or too little postage.

- Like all mail, it's important that letters to Santa include a complete return address.

- Santa enjoys candy canes and cookies and his reindeer enjoy fresh hay. But because these treats can be damaged or crushed when sent in a regular envelope, Santa says it's better to leave them out on Christmas Eve than to mail them.

- No extra packaging material, such as string or tape, is needed on a letter to Santa. The glue on the envelope flap is all that's needed.

- Letters to Santa - and other holiday mail - can be given right to your letter carrier at your door, rather than placing it in a collection box or making a special trip to the post office. And, as always, families with curbside mailboxes can put their mail in their mailbox for pickup.

Following these helpful hints can keep letters to Santa moving as quickly as possible and avoid any delays that could result from the appearance of the envelope or the way the letter is prepared. To learn more about new mail safety measures put into place by the Postal Service, visit www.usps.com.

Helping Santa Help Those in Need

While Santa himself receives most of the letters addressed to him, some are sent to certified organizations and individuals who help those in need. This tradition began in 1912, when Postmaster General Frank H. Hitchcock authorized postmasters to share letters to Santa with local charities and others.

Many Santa letters will be answered by a variety of Santa's helpers - charitable organizations, employees of local post offices, and volunteers who simply want to help a child's holiday wishes come true.

Letters to Santa Claus are handled by local post offices, so policies may vary from city to city. Your local post office can tell you how your child's letter to Santa will be handled.

An American Tradition . . .

for More Than Two Centuries

That's the United States Postal Service.

It's provided the people of America with trusted, secure and universal mail service since 1775. Delivering more than 207 billion pieces of mail each year to 135 million homes and businesses, the men and women of the United States Postal Service handle 46 percent of the world's mail volume. We deliver for you - and for Santa.

Deadline nears for next ACT Test registration

College-bound high school students can take the ACT Assessment on February 9, 2002, the next nationwide test date. The registration postmark deadline is January 4, 2002. Late registration postmark deadline is January 18 (an additional fee is required for late registration).

ACT scores are accepted by virtually all colleges and universities in the nation, including all Ivy League schools. The test fee is $24 ($27 in Florida). Colleges use ACT scores, along with a student's high school GPA (grade point average) and other information to help determine admissions and the appropriate course placement for new students.

For more information, including registration forms and free test prep materials, contact the high school counseling office or register on-line on ACT's website: www.act.org.

The website also has helpful information including sample tests, the opportunity to order test preparation materials, and links to useful sites, including a free on-line college financial aid needs estimator.

It's time to 'Meet the Grads'

Grayling High School will host its traditional "Meet the Grads Day" on Friday, December 21 in the school library.

Persons who have enrolled in colleges or universities, students of technical or vocational schools, and members of the armed services are all welcome to partake in the event by sharing their feelings about the transfer from GHS to other educational positions.

This reception will be held from 10 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. All former graduates presently seeking post secondary education are cordially invited to attend.

This event is hosted by the AuSable Chapter of the National Honor Society, with the assistance of the Counseling Department, who encourages all persons currently involved in continued education to attend the annual presentation of this event.

Frederic Red Cross Coordinator

New Crawford AuSable Schools superintendent joined many others at Frederic Elementary School on November 5 for an American Red Cross blood drive. This was her first time in Crawford County, but Milli Haug has been a regular donor prior to relocating to the Grayling area.

Other first time donors were Ann Bunker, Mary Filarski, Joanne Sharp and George Morse. Denise McEvers received her One-Gallon pin that day.

Donors that day said they considered the Frederic drive to have "the best homemade cookies and volunteers in the county." Joyce Wilson coordinated the volunteers for the Frederic Parents group in the absence of Vicky Schmidt, who was injured in a terrible car accident in August near Mancelona, along with her husband, Terry. Both continue to recover in downstate facilities.

Home firearm safety, CCW training offered

Kirtland Community College is accepting registration for a series of handgun safety classes that fulfill the training requirements of Michigan's concealed weapons (CCW) law.

Kirtland's Home Safety Firearms course has been certified by the Michigan Commission on Law Enforcement Standards in compliance with Public Act 381 of 2000. The non-credit course is designed to accommodate a wide range of experience. In addition to classroom lecture and range practice, participants will receive training on a computerized firearms simulator.

While the law only requires eight hours of training, Kirtland's program offers additional material and hands-on practice for a total of 16 hours. Participants must attend the full class and pass written and practical exams to earn a certificate.

Several combinations of classroom and range dates are offered in January and February. Cost is $150 per person and includes all ammunition and training materials. Participants may train with their own guns or use college-owned weapons. At 15 percent discount is available to senior citizens.

Pre-registration is required. To sign up, contact Kirtland's Criminal Justice Office at (989) 275-5000, ext. 283 or by e-mail at gibbsc@kirtland.cc.mi.us.

GRAND TRAVERSE FOOT NOTES

by Ronald K. Olm, D.P.M.

PREGNANCY & FOOT PAIN

Aching feet are a common problem for pregnant women. As a woman gains weight during pregnancy, her center of gravity changes. She stands and walks differently, which places pressure on her knees and feet. Two common foot problems associated with pregnancy-related weight gain are over-pronation and edema. With over-pronation, or flat feet, a woman's feet roll inward while walking. This condition can cause pain while straining the feet, calves, and/or back. Edema, or swelling in the feet, typically occurs toward the end of a pregnancy and results from excess blood accumulating in the lower extremities. Blood vessels in the pelvis and legs constrict as the growing uterus pushes outward, slowing circulation and causing blood to pool toward the feet.

Just as you put your prenatal care in the hands of a specialist, so should you entrust your hard-working feet to a specialist - a podiatrist. It's time to pay attention to what your feet are trying to tell you when each step is more painful than the one before. Your feet aren't supposed to hurt and there is help through the techniques of modern podiatry when they do. GRAND TRAVERSE FOOT & ANKLE CENTER, P.C. is located at 1209 E. 8th Street, Traverse City. PH: 922-9100 & 800-968-7440. Offices in Traverse City, also Kalkaska Memorial Health Center Monday & Wednesday afternoons and evenings.

P.S. Leg cramps and varicose veins are also common during pregnancy.

The Bible Speaks

Patriotic Creed, Prayer, & Practice

Following is the Special Forces Creed under which our Special Forces defend our nation: "I am an American Special Forces soldier. A professional! I will do all that my nation requires of me. I am a volunteer, knowing well the hazards of my profession. I serve with the memory of those who have gone before me: Roger's Rangers, Francis Marion, Mosby's Rangers, the first Special Service Forces and Ranger Battalions of World War II, the Airborne Ranger Companies of Korea. I pledge to uphold the honor and integrity of all I am - in all I do. I am a professional soldier. I will teach and fight wherever my nation requires. I will strive always, to excel in every art and artifice of war. I know that I will be called upon to perform tasks in isolation, far from familiar faces and voices, with the help and guidance of my God. I will keep my mind and body clean, alert and strong, for this is my debt to those who depend upon me. I will not fail those with whom I serve. I will not bring shame upon myself or the forces. I will maintain myself, my arms, and my equipment in an immaculate state as befits a Special Forces soldier. I will never surrender though I be the last. If I am taken, I pray that I may have the strength to spit upon my enemy. My goal is to succeed in any mission - and live to succeed again. I am a member of my nation's chosen soldiery. God grant that I may not be found wanting, that I will not fail this sacred trust."

Following is the "De Oppresso Liber", the Special Forces Prayer: "Almighty God Who art the Author of Liberty and the Champion of the oppressed hear our prayer. We the men of Special Forces, acknowledge our dependence upon Thee in the preservation of human freedom. Go with us as we seek to defend the defenseless and to free the enslaved. May we ever remember that our nation, whose oath "In God We Trust," expects that we shall requite ourselves with honor, that we may never bring shame upon our faith, our families, or our fellow men. Grant us wisdom from Thy mind, courage from Thine heart, strength from Thine arm, and protection by Thine hand. It is for Thee that we do battle, and to thee belongs the victor's crown. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power and glory forever. Amen!" The last sentence is directly from the lips of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Special Forces are the backbone of our ground fighting troops in Afghanistan. Since our elite soldiers are fighting under "the help and guidance of my God," don't we owe it to them to be living our daily lives under God's same help and guidance? If they risk death under the creed, "God grant that I may not be found wanting, that I will not fail this sacred trust," shouldn't we face life serving God by "this sacred trust"? As our soldiers pray to Almighty God as the author of liberty, and depend upon His strength to free the enslaved, shouldn't we trust the same Almighty God to defend our freedom here at home? As they fight with honor to avoid shame, shouldn't we live our lives by God's same honorable standards? Let us pray with them: "Grant us wisdom from Thy mind, courage from Thine heart, strength from Thine arm, and protection by Thine hand." As they fight for God, by His protection, and for His glory, Can we live by any higher standard? "It is for Thee that we do battle, and to thee belongs the victor's crown. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power and glory forever. Amen!" This last sentence is from the lips of our Lord Jesus Christ.

As ordinary citizens in America we can also fulfill the spirit of the above creed and prayer. Todd Beamer lived out his faith during Flight 93. Before leading a group of passengers to fight terrorists, he first led the group in the Lord's Prayer, then Psalm 23, which includes the words, "The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want" and "Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil." Then he spoke those famous words: "Are you guys ready? Let's roll." The cockpit voice recorder confirms this story as our patriots wrestled with the hijackers and died as heroes saving untold loss of life in Washington D.C. Christ said in John 10:11: "I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep." Jesus Christ also said in John 15:13: "Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends." Self-sacrifice for others is a Christian virtue. Pastor "B"

Please pray for God's blessings upon the ministry of this column and our church Website at <http://www.i2k.net/cba>. We at Calvary Baptist Church invite you to learn more from the Bible about Jesus Christ. Join us in a verse by verse study of the gospel of John each Sunday morning at 10:30 a.m.

Get your marriage back on track

For those whose marriage has grown cold or uncaring, Retrouvaille may be the program to get you back on track.

Retrouvaille, sponsored by the Diocese of Gaylord, is a program that teaches positive and simple ways to communicate; ways that can help you achieve the marriage you want to have.

"We also know firsthand of couples already separated or divorced who were able to reunite as happy and stable couples after attending the Retrouvaille program," said Diocese representative Candace Neff. "It's not too late for you, too, to benefit from what Retrouvaille has to offer."

The Retrouvaille program is Catholic in origin, but it has been and always will be open to all married couples from all different faith traditions. This program has been proven to be equally successful, regardless of the faith tradition of the attending couples, Neff said.

The next weekend program in the area will be held in Gaylord, on January 11-13, 2002.

For confidential information, to register for the weekend or to talk with a couple experienced in the Retrouvaille program, call (989) 732-1719 or, toll-free, 1-800-470-2230. All inquiries are confidential. Visit the Diocese of Gaylord web site at: www.dioceseofgaylord.org.

Boar's Head Feast planned

A "Boar's Head Feast" will be held in the lower chambers of Michelson Memorial United Methodist Church on Friday and Saturday, December 21-22, beginning at 6:30 p.m. each evening.

"Medieval enchantments" await those who attend. Admission is $12 for adults and $5 for students for the feast and tour of "Christmas Day in the Town Square of Olde Bethesda." Hawkers of market goods and wandering minstrels will be on hand to enchant those willing to take the risk of entering the ancient city.

Tickets for the Feast may be purchased in advance at Chemical Bank and at the church office.

For more information, call 348-2974.

Sharing God's Gift

"Welcome back, Miss Carter!" exclaimed her fourth grade class on the day of her return from an extended illness. One student extended a lovingly and colorfully wrapped box of candy festooned with multiple stick-on bows. "Thank you, children. It was so thoughtful of you to give me a present. I shall pass it around the room so I may share this lovely gift with all of you."

At this time of year, we begin to think of Christmas and the gift the Heavenly Father shared with us...His Son Jesus. God has given us all individual gifts and talents. As we enter the holiday season, meditate upon those gifts we can share to brighten the lives of others. If only a smile, we all have something we can thankfully share each day.

Worship this week. In the words of the hymn, "Praise God from Whom all blessings flow."

In Loving Memory

Charles (Gus) Williams who passed away December 18, 1994. Your gentle face and patient smile, with sadness we recall, you had a kindly word for each, and died beloved by all.

Bitter was the trail to part from one so good as you. You are not forgotten loved one nor will you ever be. We will remember thee.

We miss you now, our hearts are sore. As time goes by we miss you more. Your loving smile, your gentle face. No one can fill your vacant place.

Those we love don't go away, they walk beside us every day. No longer in our lives to share but in our hearts you are always there.

Sadly missed and lovingly remembered.

Disc Problems

Back Surgery

The term "slipped disc" is a misnomer. It is impossible for the disc to actually slip... what can "slip" are the vertebrae. "Slipped discs" should be called "slipped vertebrae."

The discs separate the vertebrae and, because they're knitted into the bones, also join them together. They act like little shock absorbers, cushioning the bones so they don't crash against each other as you walk, which would be very painful. Discs help give the spine its curve, flexibility and strength. The 23 discs in your spine also make up about a third of the length of the spinal column and that's why you are about 1/4 inch to 1/2 inch taller in the morning than you were the night before; the discs flatten out a little after a day of standing and then regain their volume when you sleep.

Disc Herniation, Protrusion and Prolapse

There are two types of herniations: protrusions and prolapses. A protrusion can occur if the nucleus pulposi bulges, pushing the annular fibrosis out of shape. A prolapse occurs if the nucleus bulges out so much that it actually separates from the rest of the disc.

If the prolapsed disc goes into the spinal cord or puts pressure on nerves, it may cause severe pain that could make sitting, standing, walking, lifting, urinating, defecating, sneezing, coughing and moving nearly impossible. In extreme cases, foot or leg numbness or a loss of muscle control may occur. However, only a small number of those with low-back pain have any disc problems.

Back Surgery

While spinal surgery is sometimes necessary, especially in cases of trauma or severe bone, disc and nerve destruction (due to a variety of causes from infection to cancer), the vast majority of people with low-back pain and/or sciatica never need it.

Failed Back Surgery Syndrome

Of the thousands of surgical procedures done each year for ruptured discs, medical authorities admit that a large number are unnecessary and useless, with many of those who have back surgery in the same or worse pain after the operation.

They have Failed Back Surgery Syndrome (FBSS). To make matters worse, if surgery is ineffective the first time, a second or third operation will not help. Even successful operations could cause scar tissue, permanent spinal weakness, distortion and instability.

Chiropractic could save many thousands of back pain sufferers from unnecessary spinal surgery each year. Anyone facing the prospect of spinal surgery should, if possible, get at least one opinion from a doctor of chiropractic before deciding what to do.

KCC offers young writers opportunity to interview

Aspiring writers and journalists from several area high schools -- among them Fairview, Grayling, Houghton Lake and Oscoda -- helped to make Media Day at Kirtland Community College a big success. Students were invited, along with local professional media, to interview Kirtland's men's and women's basketball teams, and its cheerleaders, for their school and hometown newspapers. The young writers are pictured here, with some Kirtland officials in the front row. The men, from the left, are: Dean of Instruction and Educational Services Richard Silverman, KCC President Charles Rorie, Marketing Director Jim Enger, and Publicist Keith Gave.

OMH welcomes VP of Patient Care Services

Suzanne Cleere

When Suzanne Cleere trains for a marathon, she has a dual purpose -- to test the physical fitness she values for herself, and to raise money for the Leukemia Society.

Cleere is looking forward to putting the same dedication into her new position as the Vice President of Patient Care Services at Otsego Memorial Hospital.

"I bring many years of experience here from both nursing and administrative disciplines," Cleere said. "I will be working with the managers throughout the organization to determine how we can combine efforts to create the best outcome for patients."

Cleere most recently was director for the Birthing Center, and Surgical Services at Lapeer Regional Hospital. She has also served as Vice President of Women's Health Services in Garden City.

The position at OMH is new for both Cleere and the hospital. A restructuring of senior management roles has led to the position which will supervise not only the nursing units of the Hospital, but also the ancillary clinical areas including radiology, laboratory, physical therapy, cardiopulmonary and pharmacy.

"I'm excited that everyone here is open to talk about what we can do together," Cleere said.

Cleere became a nurse because she enjoys meeting people's needs, and because the field allows her to make a difference in people's lives. She feels her administrative roles have only enhanced those opportunities.

"In a management role, your patient population just gets bigger," Cleere explains. "In this position, I will have the opportunity to impact everyone who receives clinical services at Otsego Memorial. And, I can still walk into a room and do something for a patient."

Cleere describes herself as "a bit of a health nut" and looks forward to all of the recreational opportunities northern Michigan offers.

Local hospitals join 11th annual food 'gathering'

Mercy Health Services North, Grayling, and others in northern Michigan, joined several other hospitals and health systems for the 2001 Michigan Harvest Gathering. This year the annual food drive gathered and collected an overall 28,994 pounds of food and over $650 in cash donations to be donated to area food banks.

Mercy Grayling gathered 1,377 pounds of food, Otsego Memorial Hospital in Gaylord gathered 600 pounds, Northern Michigan Regional Health System in Petoskey gathered 1,041 pounds and $150, and West Branch Regional Medical Center gathered 1,567 pounds.

This is the Michigan Harvest Gathering's 11th year.

New Turkish poetry book unveiled

The poetry of Ali Yuce, a former shepherd who became one of Turkey's most popular poets, has come to life at Kirtland Community College (KCC) in a book of poems translated into English in a unique partnership of two KCC instructors.

Poet Gerry LeFemina, who teaches English and creative writing, and Sinan Toprak, a native Turkish speaker who teaches political science, teamed up to produce the 95-page volume entitled Voice Lock Puppet. On corresponding pages, poems appear in their original Turkish, and in the English translation. In either language, the poems contain beautiful, vivid and powerful messages.

After learning to read and write through an educational program in Turkey called The Village Institutes, Yuce began to write poetry and send it to various Turkish magazines, where it found immediate success. He is the author of 15 volumes, including a novel and a collection of essays.

A seminal figure, spanning generations of readers in rural and modern Turkey, Yuce is known for his vigor and forthrightness. His work is deft and witty -- sometimes humorous, occasionally outrageous -- frequently subtle and always moving.

Funding through the Kirtland

Community College Foundation made the book possible. It will be available in January, published by Orchises Press in Virginia. For more information, contact Roger Lathbury at (703) 683-1243 or by e-mail at lathbury@gmu.edu.

Federal Consumer Protection has confirmed the accuracy of the fuel saving described in this advertisement.

Device May Increase Gas Mileage by 22%

BOSTON - National Fuelsaver Corp. of Boston has developed a low cost automotive accessory called the Platinum Gas Saver which is guaranteed to increase gas mileage by 22% while meeting all emission standards.

With a simple connection to a vacuum line, the Gas Saver adds microscopic quantities of platinum to the air-fuel mixture entering the engine.

Platinum has the unique ability to make non-burning fuel burn. With platinum in the flame zone, you increase the percentage of fuel burning in the engine from 68% of each gallon to 90% of each gallon, a 22% increase.

Since unburnt fuel leaving an engine is pollution, this 22% of each gallon would normally burn when it reaches the platinum of the catalytic converter.

Unfortunately, the converter's platinum burns this fuel in the tailpipe, where the heat and energy produced from burning this fuel cannot be harnessed to drive your vehicle.

But when the Gas Saver adds platinum to the air-fuel mixture, 22% more of each gallon burns inside the engine so that 22% fewer gallons are required to drive the same distance.

After studying this process for five years, the government concluded: "Independent testing shows greater fuel savings with the Platinum Gas Saver than the 22% claimed by the developer."

In addition to this government study, the Gas Saver has received patents for cleaning out carbon and raising octane, making premium fuel unnecessary for most vehicles.

Joel Robinson, the developer, commented: "We have sold almost a half million Gas Savers. To our surprise, as many people buy the Gas Saver because it extends engine life (by cleaning out the abrasive carbon deposits) as buy it to increase gas mileage or to raise octane."

Local farmers offered loan assistance after drought

U.S. Agriculture Secretary Ann Veneman has designated 72 Michigan counties as primary natural disaster areas following requests made by 4th District U.S. Rep. Dave Camp and others, including Gov. John Engler to designate a total of 73 counties due to losses of fruit, vegetables and field crops caused by last summer's drought.

"I'm pleased Secretary Veneman carefully reviewed our petition and agreed to our request," Camp said. "Many of our farmers suffered a severe financial loss this year because they lost their crops to the hot, dry summer. Now they are eligible for federal funding and low-interest emergency loans through the USDA's Farm Service Agency."

Of the 73 counties, Veneman determined Crawford County did not sustain sufficient production losses to warrant a Secretarial disaster designation. However, farmers in Crawford County are eligible for Farm Service Agency emergency loan assistance because it was named as a contiguous disaster county.

Nearby 4th District counties designated primary natural disasters include Ogemaw, Oscoda and Roscommon.

Grayling Middle School News

Submitted by the Grayling Middle School Parent Improvement Team

Our Media Center has been very busy. We have had 3,349 books checked out in the past three months, September, October, and November. Our circulation numbers show us we have a very busy Media Center. Sixth grade students have checked out the most books, totaling 1,532, with the fiction genre being most popular.

December 14 - is designated as a day to read for the year 2002. Students are encouraged to read for 2002 seconds or 33.5 minutes on this day. Perhaps parents will take 33.5 minutes to read and set the example for their children.

A new book entitled Broken Heart ... Healing: Young Poets Speak Out on Divorce has arrived in our media center. In this book of poetry, students' works on the subject of divorce are published. It is a very enlightening piece of literature. Our hope is that many students who are experiencing this event in their lives will check out the book and find they are not alone.

December 13 - The Grayling Middle School Choir will be holding its annual winter concert at the high school at 7 p.m. The eighth grade girls received their choir gowns this past Friday. Please make sure your child is dressed appropriately for this concert. Make sure your child arrives at the high school an hour before the concert time.

December 13 - P.I.T. meeting will be held at the Grayling Middle School at 8:30 a.m. We really need some parents to start attending these meetings.

December 18 - The Grayling Middle School Holiday Band Concert will be held at the Grayling Middle School at 7 p.m. Your child should be dressed according to the band dress code: black pants/skirt and a white shirt. Also, make sure they arrive at school at least an hour before the concert time.

December 19 - Viking Band Boosters meeting will be held at the Grayling Middle School at 7 p.m. If your child is in band, you should try to attend these meetings to find out all the things they have planned.

December 21 - Christmas Break starts with early dismissal for all students, beginning with the High School at 11:30 a.m.

Vikings win at Roscommon

Varsity team rallies for second half comeback

► Grayling trails by nine at the half, but finishes strong to win by twelve

by Caleb Casey
Staff Writer

Grayling overcame a nine-point halftime deficit in last week's varsity basketball match at Roscommon on Tuesday to claim a 67-55 win over the Bucks in Grayling's 2001-02 season opener.

The win also capped a three-game sweep of the Bucks at Roscommon, as Grayling's junior varsity and freshman teams also defeated the Bucks on Tuesday, 69-24 and 57-35, respectively.

After blow-outs in the first two games of the basketball tripleheader, the varsity match was a closely contested battle that featured an impressive comeback by Grayling.

Roscommon took control early, but the Vikings finished strong to win by 12.

The Bucks led 17-10 after one quarter of play. Grayling scored its 10 first period points on a shot inside by R.J. Schmidt, a free throw by Scott Latusek, a jump shot by Schmidt, a put-back by Larry Baynham, a free throw by Nick D'Amour, and a jumper by Wes Fox.

Grayling's press too much for Bucks in JV contest

► JV team wins big at Roscommon, defeats Gaylord by 19 in Grayling

by Caleb Casey
Staff Writer

Grayling High School's JV boys basketball team opened its 2001-02 season with two consecutive wins last week, including a 69-24 victory at Roscommon on Tuesday in the squad's season opener.

It took the Vikings a few minutes to get into a rhythm against the Bucks at Roscommon last Tuesday, but once they did, the Vikes ran away with the game. Aggressive defending and effective full court pressure helped Grayling add points to the board quickly while keeping Roscommon out of their offensive zone for most of the first half, resulting in a lop-sided score at halftime.

About two minutes into the game, the Vikings got started with an 8-0 run to lead 10-1 mid-way through the first quarter. The run included two drives by Roy Czapek, a fast break lay-up by Travis Gildner, and two free throws by Andy Strohpaal.

GHS led 12-5 after one quarter of play.

GHS wrestlers defeat Houghton Lake

► Vikings win against Bobcats, fall to Northmen in home dual meet

The GHS wrestling team defeated Houghton Lake but lost to a strong Petoskey squad in Grayling's first home dual meet of the '01-02 season last Wednesday.

Petoskey and Houghton Lake faced off first. The Northmen defeated the Bobcats of Houghton Lake by a final score 78-6.

The Vikings then wrestled against Petoskey. The Northmen won nine matches by pin, one by decision, and one by forfeit.

Grayling posted three wins against Petoskey: Darryl Babbitt (160), 8-7 decision, 3 team points; Brandon Pratt (171), pin, 6 team points; Aaron Rosecrans (215), 14-9 decision, 3 team points.

Grayling and Houghton Lake took to the mat for the final team competition of the night.

The Vikings again forfeited in the heavyweight division. HL led 6-0.

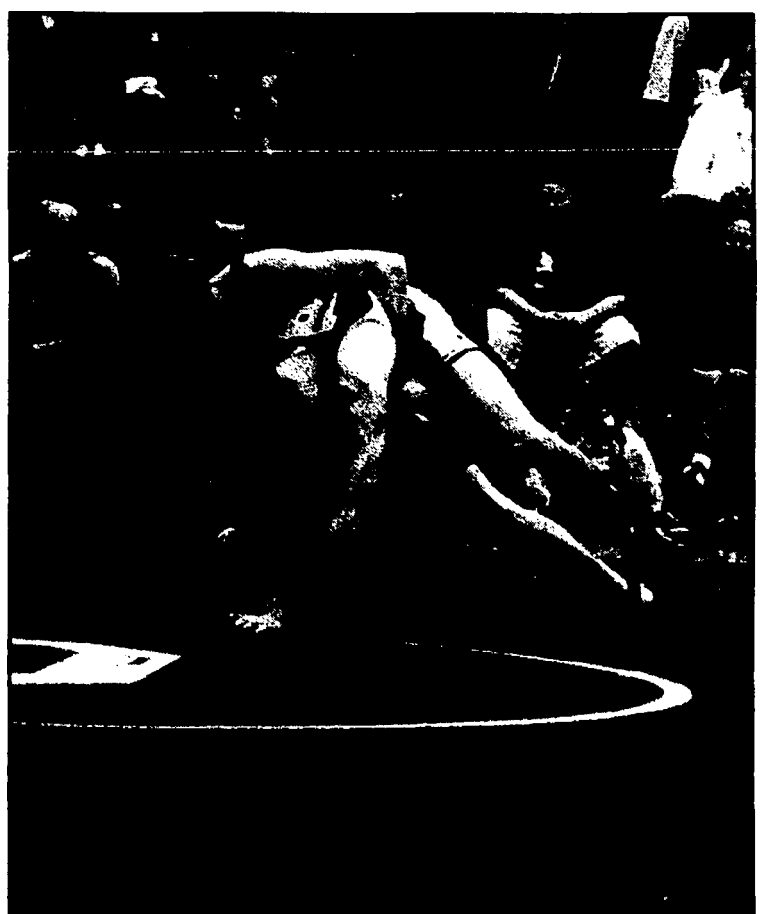

Brady Ward (103) pinned his opponent in the second round to tie the score at 6-6.

CHIROPRACTIC
FOR BETTER HEALTH

Dr. Craig Denholm

—CHIROPRACTOR—

AS YOUNG AS YOU FEEL?

You're only as young as you feel. That's a fine thing to think about if your mind and body are in good health. No aches and pains. No tightness in your muscles. No difficulty at all in falling comfortably asleep. If you're in good health you can never lose that youthful exuberance, that wonderful feeling about being alive and doing things.

But if you feel tired all the time, full of aches and pains, irritable and grumpy, there's tension in your body that needs treatment to bring you welcome relief. A spine out of alignment, tight muscles and nerves in your back and other parts of your body create tension that can cause a lot of physical as well as mental discomfort.

Keeping busy with work and hobbies, enjoying friendships, and eating a well-balanced diet can help you hold onto that youthful exuberance. But there may be times when there is a tension buildup caused by muscles, nerves, and "insults" to your spine that need treatment to help you feel as "young" as you should be.

In the last two minutes of the third quarter, Grayling outscored Roscommon 9-1 to take a 46-44 advantage into the fourth quarter. The run included triples by D'Amour and Schmidt and three free throws.

Roscommon hit the first basket of the fourth quarter to tie the game at 46-46. A shot inside by Schmidt and a fast break lay-up by the Bucks tied the match at 48-48.

A triple by Schmidt gave GHS a three-point edge. At the 5:51 mark, Schmidt sank another three-pointer to put the Vikings up by six.

Roscommon scored at the 4:47 mark, then Grayling countered with a drive by Schmidt to leave Grayling's lead at six with about four minutes left to play.

A free throw by Latusek, a shot inside by Lange on the press break, a lay-up by D'Amour following a steal, and a free throw by D'Amour put the Vikings up by 11, 62-51, with 2:20 remaining in the fourth quarter.

Another shot inside by Lange on a press break and a free throw by D'Amour put GHS up by 14 with 48 seconds left on the fourth quarter clock. D'Amour and Schmidt converted free throws down the stretch, and the Vikings held on to win by 12, 67-55.

Schmidt was the scoring leader for Grayling with 30 points. Baynham led the rebounding effort with 13 boards, and Tobin led the team in assists with seven.

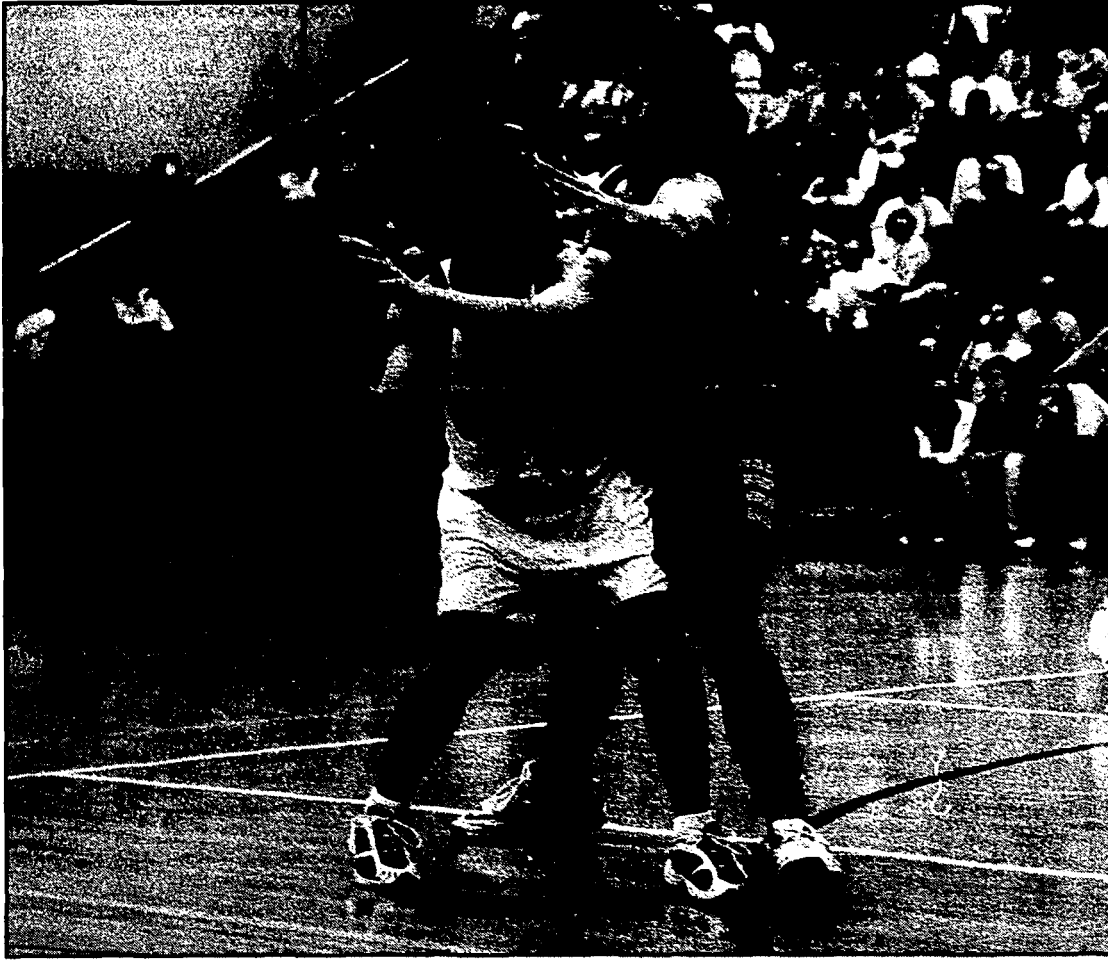

"In the first half we were totally outplayed by Roscommon," said Coach Rich Moffit. "They beat us on the boards 24-16 and I thought we were tentative on the court."

"Our kids stepped it up in the second half and we got a good defensive effort out of our kids. Our senior leadership and work on the boards, 22-8 in the second half, was the difference," said Coach Moffit. "We have to continue to work hard and improve as a team if we are going to be successful."

The Vikings lost their second game of the season, a home match against the Blue Devils of Gaylord last Friday. A combination of Grayling turnovers and consistently accurate shooting by Gaylord resulted in a 96-78 Blue Devil win in a high-scoring affair.

The teams set the frenzied pace on offense early, combining for 46 points in the first period alone.

Grayling's 19 first quarter points came from triples by Latusek and Schmidt, a jumper by Tobin, a lay-up and a three-point play by Schmidt, a jumper by D'Amour, and free throws by Lange and Ryan Swope.

Nick D'Amour looks to pass against the Blue Devils of Gaylord on Friday.

Gaylord, capitalizing on several Grayling turnovers, went on a 12-0 run to start the second quarter. The Blue Devils led by 20, 39-19, at that point, and never let the Vikings back into the game.

Grayling scored 10 second period points on a jumper by Latusek, a shot inside by Baynham on a long pass by Schmidt, and free throws by Baynham, Schmidt, and Tobin.

The Blue Devils led 53-29 at half-time.

Grayling had a solid third quarter on offense, scoring 19 points, but the Blue Devils continued their hot shooting and hit for 20.

Grayling's 19 third period points included two triples and two lay-ups by Schmidt, a three-pointer by D'Amour, a shot inside by Roger Alvarez, and four free throws.

The Blue Devils led 73-48 going into the fourth period.

The fourth quarter erupted into a three-point shoot-out. Grayling scored seven three-pointers in the period, while Gaylord connected on six three-point shots for a grand total of 13 triples in the final eight minutes of play. (The two teams made 24 triples throughout the duration of the game, accounting for 72 of the 174 total points scored in the match.)

Grayling's fourth quarter three-point assault included three triples by Tobin, two by Schmidt, and two by Latusek.

Schmidt, in another impressive performance on offense, led Grayling with 32 points. He is averaging 31 points per game after two matches. Latusek and Tobin each finished with 13 against Gaylord.

The Vikings start their conference schedule this week. On Friday, December 14, the team will play at Bay City John Glenn.

After the holiday break, the Vikings will host Gladwin on Friday, January 4.

Guard Scott Latusek handles the ball for the Vikings in the Roscommon game on Tuesday.

The run included nine points by Czapek, three fast break lay-ups by Strohpaul, a jump shot by Gildner, two free throws by Morrill, and a put-back by Ryan Davis.

The Vikings led by 29 at half-time, 38-9.

Grayling backed off on the press in the second half, and maintained a steady lead.

The Vikings scored 16 points in the third period on a triple by Gildner, a jumper by Gildner, a three-point play by Czapek, a fast break lay-up by Gildner, a shot inside by Phil Armstrong, a jump shot by Morrill, and a reverse lay-up by Czapek.

Grayling added 15 points to their total in the fourth quarter with a triple by Armstrong, a shot inside by Gildner, a put-back by Gildner, and a fast break bucket by Armstrong.

The Vikings won the match by 45 points, 69-24.

"We started a little slow and tight, then picked up the pressure and turned steals into points," said Coach Butch Hayes. "A great team effort."

Czapek and Gildner each posted a double-double in the match vs. Roscommon. Gildner finished with 19 points and 13 rebounds, and Czapek had 19 points and 10 boards. Strohpaul scored 13 points, and Morrill finished with 7 rebounds.

GHS wrestlers defeat Houghton Lake

Houghton Lake won the next two matches to take an 18-6 lead.

Adam Malone (125) picked up six points for GHS with a second round pin. A first round pin by Andy Palmer (130) tied the score at 18-18.

The Bobcats won the 135-pound division. Tom Barnett (140) won a 14-9 decision to pull the Vikings within three, 24-21.

Houghton Lake won the next match to go up by nine.

A 7-4 win by decision by Dusty Partello (152) cut HL's lead to six.

A first round pin by Darryl Babbitt (160), his second win of the day, tied the score at 30-30.

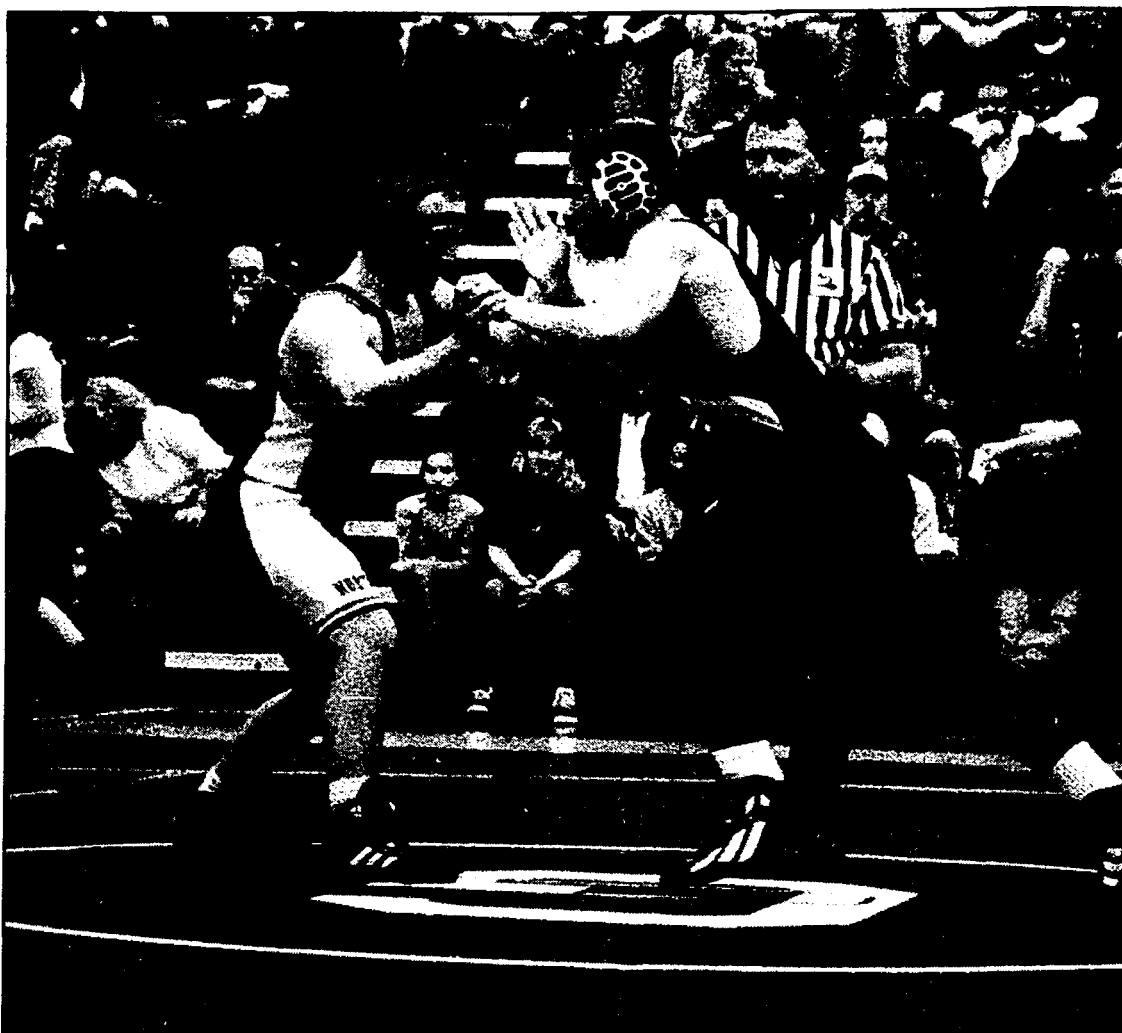

Pratt (171), winning his second match of the meet, defeated his opponent 17-8 by decision and earned four team points for Grayling.

With only two weight classes left, Grayling led 34-30. A win in the next match would be enough to clinch a GHS victory.

Greg Warren (189) pinned his opponent in the second round for six team points, sealing a win for Grayling. Rosecrans (215) added another six points to Grayling's total in the final match of the meet with a third round pin.

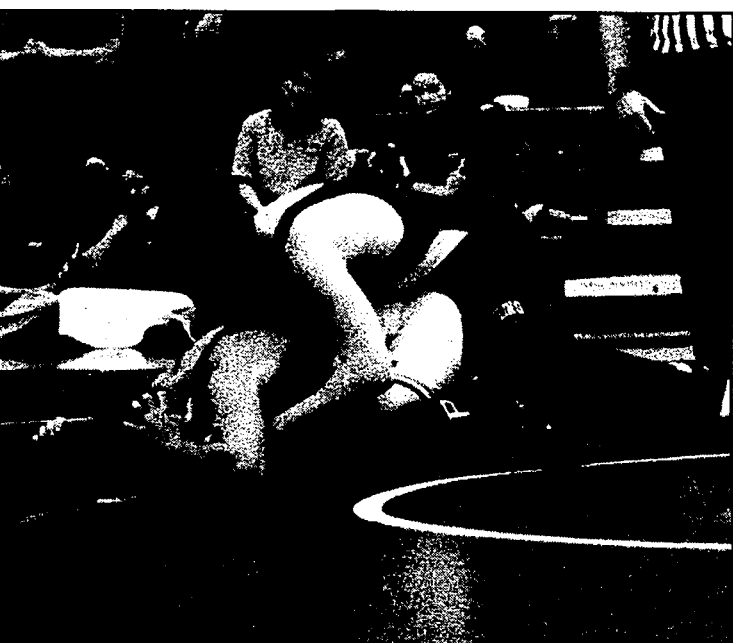

GHS won 46-30 over Houghton Lake.

The Vikings will host Roscommon and Gladwin on Thursday, December 20, at 6 p.m.

NOTICE OF SHOW CAUSE HEARING AND JUDICIAL FORECLOSURE HEARING NON-PAYMENT OF PROPERTY TAXES

On March 1, 2001 real estate with unpaid 1997 and/or 1999 property taxes was forfeited to the Crawford County Treasurer pursuant to the General Property Tax Act, Public Act 206 of 1893, PA 206, MCL 211.1 to 211.157, as amended.

The State of Michigan is acting as the Foreclosing Governmental Unit in proceedings to foreclose on this property for unpaid property taxes.

There are two hearings scheduled to finalize the foreclosure process. This publication is intended to provide additional notice to parties of interest in these parcels as to the nature, time, and location of these hearings.

A Show Cause Hearing is scheduled for Jan 2-23, 2002 at 608 S Washington, Lansing MI 48933.

Any person with an interest in the property forfeited to the county treasurer may appear at the show cause hearing and redeem that property or show cause why absolute title to that property should not vest in the Foreclosing Governmental Unit.

A Judicial Foreclosure Hearing is scheduled for Feb 6, 2002 11:45 AM at 46th Circuit Court, 200 W Michigan Ave, Grayling MI 49738.

At this hearing the Foreclosing Governmental Unit shall ask that the court enter a judgment foreclosing the property as requested in the petition for foreclosure. A person claiming an interest in a parcel of property set forth in the petition for foreclosure, who desires to contest that petition, must file written objections with the clerk of the circuit court and serve those objections on State of Michigan, the Foreclosing Governmental Unit. The docket number of the petition is 01-5494-CZ.

If you are a person with an interest in property being foreclosed:

- You have the right to redeem this parcel from the foreclosure process by payment of all forfeited unpaid taxes, interest, penalties, and fees prior to the expiration of the redemption period. You should contact the Crawford County Treasurer for the amount required to redeem.
- You may lose your interest in the property as a result of the foreclosure proceeding.
- The title to the property shall vest absolutely in the Foreclosing Governmental Unit unless all forfeited unpaid delinquent taxes, interest, penalties, and fees are paid within 21 days after judgment is entered in the foreclosure proceedings.

PLEASE NOTE :

The following list represents parties that appear to have title, lien, or other apparent rights to the parcels being foreclosed by the Foreclosing Governmental Unit.

This notice is required to be given by law, even if the party no longer claims or desires an interest if it appears they hold any undischarged, apparent, or potential title or lien right to the property.

Listing of a party does NOT necessarily indicate that they are the owner of a parcel, or that they are liable for the property taxes.

This list is NOT an offering of property for sale. These parcels are NOT being sold, auctioned, or otherwise made available by virtue of this notice.

There is no procedure for purchasing these parcels from the Foreclosing Governmental Unit at this point in the foreclosure proceedings. Those parcels that are foreclosed and not redeemed may become available at public auction in July, September, and November of 2002. These parcels remain the property of their current owner until redemption rights have expired. No party should make any attempt to inspect or enter upon these parcels assuming them to be for sale. This may constitute trespassing and subject the offender to criminal prosecution. The street address of the parcels listed is based on local records and is not guaranteed to be the actual location of the property.

The amount due listed indicates the balance which was due as of forfeiture on March 1, 2001. The current amount required to redeem must be obtained from the Crawford County Treasurer, as additional penalties, fees, and interest have accrued since forfeiture.
